Moving Tips

Moving is probably one of the biggest projects you will ever take on. It's unbelievable how much you've accumulated. That's why it is important to have a plan of action when you have decided to move. In order to make life much easier, the associates at Transport Regent have put together a list of helpful hints for organizing your move. In general, our list provides a guide to certain aspects that may be overlooked. We hope you find the following tips useful.

EIGHT WEEKS BEFORE YOU MOVE

- Obtain a floor plan of your new residence and decide what household goods you want to keep.
- Begin an inventory of all household goods.
- Contact your insurance agent, and ask them about your homeowners, or rental policy to determine whether your possessions are covered when moving.
- Establish a file for all moving papers and receipts.
- Arrange to transfer children's school records.
- Call regentvanlines.com to schedule the moving date.

SIX WEEKS BEFORE YOU MOVE

- Fill out post-office change of address cards.
- Send your new address to anyone that might need it -- insurance agents, credit card companies, magazine subscriptions, friends, relatives, etc.
- Clean out closets and dispose of all items that you will not be taking with you.
- Hold a moving/garage sale or donate items to charities.

FOUR WEEKS BEFORE YOU MOVE

- For self packing, obtain necessary moving supplies, boxes, twine, labels, etc.
- Start packing in advance.
- If regentvanlines.com is doing the packing, arrange for it to be done one or two days before loading begins.
- Send furniture, drapes and carpets for repair or cleaning as needed.
- Gather valuable personal papers that you may need at your final destination location, including medical and dental records, school records, birth certificates, etc.
- Make travel plans and arrange any motel or other reservations if needed.

THREE WEEKS BEFORE YOU MOVE

- Arrange to have utilities (gas, electric, phone, cable, water, internet, etc.) disconnected in your present home, and connected at your new home.
- Ready car registration and insurance records for transfer.
- Notify State Motor Vehicle Bureau of your new address.
- Arrange for child care on moving day.
- If necessary, reserve apartment elevator for pickup and/or delivery dates.

TWO WEEKS BEFORE YOU MOVE

- Arrange to move pets.
- Dispose of all items too dangerous to move, including flammable liquids.
- If necessary, have your automobile serviced and ready for the trip.

ONE WEEK BEFORE YOU MOVE

- Transfer all bank accounts.
- Cancel newspaper/magazine delivery.
- Have enough medication to last at least two weeks. Have prescriptions forwarded to a pharmacy at your final destination.
- Make arrangements to pay for your move.
- Withdraw items and close safety deposit boxes.

TWO DAYS BEFORE YOU MOVE

- Have regentvanlines.com pack your goods (unless doing it yourself).
- Defrost and dry refrigerators and freezers to be moved.
- Set aside valuable items to carry with you including jewelry, vital documents, money and valuable small items.

MOVING DAY

- Be on hand to answer questions and give directions to regentvanlines.com and stay until they are finished.
- Accompany driver for inventory of your household goods.
- Complete information on bill of lading and carefully read the document before you sign it.
- Make sure you have your copies of the bill of lading and inventory.
- Keep the bill of lading until your possessions are delivered, the charges are paid, and any claims are settled.
- Before the van leaves, take one final look through the house to make certain nothing has been left behind.
- Give the driver directions to your new home.
- Notify the driver and the van line where you can be reached during the move.

DELIVERY DAY

- Be on hand to answer any questions and give directions.
- You must pay the driver before your goods can be unloaded. This is a Federal requirement for interstate moves.
- Supervise unloading and unpacking.
- Check carefully for any damaged or missing items.
